Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi"—which translated means Teacher—"where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see."

MISSION STATEMENT

St. Wenceslaus Parish community seeks to continue the mission of Jesus Christ by sharing the Good News of God's unconditional love through vibrant worship, life-long faith formation and opportunities for service.

Please come share in fellowship and good will with your parish family on Sunday January 22nd from 8:00 a.m. to noon. Enjoy the famous Knights of Columbus pancakes, sausage and eggs breakfast with a goodwill offering to benefit the local St. Wenceslaus chapter of the St. Vincent DePaul society. Start the first of the year off right by helping the less fortunate with your donation and time.

Catholicism

The sixth DVD for the Catholicism program will be shown on January 17th at 7:00 p.m. in the church. In this DVD titled, "A Body Both Suffering and Glorious—The Mystical Union of Christ and the Church", Fr. Barron answers clearly the question "What is Church?" Fr. Barron presents the reality of the Church as "one, holy, catholic and apostolic" and explores the Catholic conviction that the life and presence of Christ continues to embrace humanity in all its joys and sorrows through the presence of the Church. Journey to Rome, New York City, Sao Paolo, Manila, Namugongo and Uganda.

Engraved bricks are being sold as a fundraiser for an Eagle Scout project for the re-landscaping of the prayer garden on the southwest side of the school. You may purchase a brick for your family, in memory of a loved one, or for your business. See the table in the back of church for order forms and more details.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. And give us peace. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Parishioners of Saint Wenceslaus, as a member of the Saint Wenceslaus family I want to thank all of you that came to the pancake feed on Sunday, December 18th. I am deeply grateful for all you have done for me, prayerfully and financially. Without your help, I would not be able to be at Arizona State University sharing the Gospel. It is encouraging to see how passionate you are about the New Evangelization. I also want to give you an update about our organization. FOCUS's president, Curtis Martin, has been appointed to the Pontifical Council for the New Evangelization by Pope Benedict XVI. The committee includes only six lay persons and two Americans, so for Curtis to be one of these it is a great honor for us. If you missed the pancake feed you can still donate to my mission. Go to www.focusonline.org/goto/andrew.dennis, click on make a donation on the FOCUS main webpage or mail a check to: FOCUS P.O. Box 18710 Golden, CO 80402-9809 be sure and note on the check memo line "Andrew Dennis 44761". Thank you and God bless, Andrew

REFLECTING ON THE SCRIPTURES

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle B

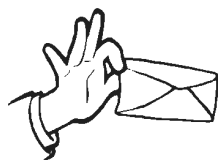

Today's readings: 1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19; 1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20; John 1:35-42

Discovery and Revelation

"They said to him, 'Rabbi, where are you staying?' He said to them, 'Come, and you will see.' "

We found _____! Fill in the blank: a sunken treasure, a Picasso in the attic, a UFO, a gold mine. Even if Andrew had said as much to Peter, he would not have elicited any more excitement than he did by finishing the sentence with "the Messiah." But the same words spoken to another might elicit little more than disbelief. Try announcing your find of sunken treasure or the Picasso in the attic and you might be answered, "Yeah, right." Only a seeker, someone longing, can be stopped in his tracks and caught up in a dream that is too good to be true. It did not take Eli and Samuel long to realize it was the Lord calling. Samuel could say, "Your servant is listening" because he had been practicing listening to the Lord during all his days in the Temple with Eli.

Much of life is rehearsal. We do not know it at the time; we just do what we do. We make choices and follow patterns, and one day something really big happens and we are ready. Whether it is an emergency or an opportunity, we are ready, we understand, we know what to do, and we do it while others panic or let the chance slip by. Andrew and Peter were ready for the coming of the Messiah. They had been rehearsing all their lives as they caught fish, mended nets and went home for supper. Their hearts were ready for the miracle, and so they went to see. The Word to Go © 2011 Archdiocese of Chicago: Liturgy Training Publications. By Graziano Marcheschi with Rosanne Masters Thomas. Permission to publish granted by the Very Reverend John F. Canary, Vicar General, Archdiocese of Chicago, on May 18, 2011.

Our aim is to have your tithing records as accurate as possible. Please use your assigned envelopes when donating to the church. This will help us tremendously. Thank you!

EPS BABY SHOWER

The St. Wenceslaus EPS Baby Shower continues this week. Let's fill the baby crib with all the items a new baby will need. Monetary donations can be made by using your Charity of the Month envelope. The unborn thanks you for your generosity. If you have any questions call Cathy at 402-758-9343.

"LORD, TEACH ME TO PRAY," Part 1, for women, a 12 week program introducing Ignatian prayer and spirituality, will begin on Wednesday, January 18th, at 9:30 a.m. in the Cry Room. Entitled Praying Christian Virtues, Part 1, begins the series teaching us how to further develop our prayer life through the teachings of St. Ignatius of Loyola. Daily Scripture reading based on a virtue of the week in part 1 prepares us for part 2, "My 19th Annotation" (the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius), and part 3, "Discernment and Gifts of the Spirit." Newcomer or previous participant, you are invited to join us and grow in faith, hope and love of the Holy Trinity. For questions or to register please call parishioner Julie Wilson at 402-334-9430.

Information Night: Monday, January 16th, at 7:00 p.m. at St. Gerald Fellowship Hall, 96th and Q, for men and women. A video on the prayer series will be viewed. Come if you have questions or would like to learn more about the prayer series.

VOCATIONS - Trust the Promise: Consider your life committed to Christ as a priest, brother, sister or deacon. For more information contact Fr. Paul Hoelsing at 402-558-3100 or Fr. Tom, Fr. Kizito or Fr. Bernie at our parish 402-330-0304.

VOCATIONS CORNER: Do not be afraid to go out into the streets and public places like the first apostles, who preached Christ and the good news of salvation in the squares of cities, towns and villages. This is no time to be ashamed of the Gospel. It is the time to preach it from the rooftops. Do not be afraid to break out of comfortable and routine modes of living in order to take up the challenge of making Christ known in the modern metropolis. Blessed John Paul II

LITURGY CORNERThe Lord's Prayer and the Embolism

The Communion Rite begins with the Lord's Prayer. In the revised translation of The Roman Missal, the words of the Lord's Prayer have not changed for the liturgical assembly. However, there are changes to the words of the priest celebrant. These changes include the invitation to pray the Lord's Prayer as well as to the part he prays before we pray the doxology: "For the kingdom, / the power. . . ."

The invitation by the priest to pray the Lord's Prayer names why we pray this prayer. First, Christ Jesus, in Matthew's account of the Gospel, invited us, or commanded us, to pray as he prayed to his Father. Second, he himself taught us to pray this prayer. He modeled prayer for us, by praying himself. In the Lord's Prayer itself, we pray for the kingdom, or reign, of God to come. We pray for God's kingdom to become present here and now. How it is in heaven, we pray, will become present to us on earth. Finally, the doxology, that is, the final part proclaimed by priest and people, rightly calls us to offer glory and praise to God, under whose authority, rule and power we disciples live.

Following the Lord's Prayer is the Sign of Peace. God's kingdom, rule, and power is one of peace, of true communion with and among human persons. Only the Triune God can give us the peace, communion and "daily bread" we need.

Life Teen gatherings are a fun way to learn about your Catholic faith with your friends. Life Nights include a meal, games, a presentation, small and large group discussions on a topic and prayer. Attend 5:30 p.m. Mass. From 6:30 – 7:00 p.m. we share a simple meal. The Life Night activity begins at 7:00 p.m. and ends by 8:30 p.m. We meet in the Community Room in the School on January 15th and 29th. Come to the “Hour”, Eucharistic Adoration with praise and worship, on January 22nd after 5:30 p.m. Mass.

Provide a Meal for Life Teen: Would you be willing to provide a simple meal for Life Teen participants right after 5:30 p.m. Mass? You may sign up for a weekend at this link: <http://www1.mysignup.com/cgi-bin/view.cgi?datafile=lifeteenmealschedule>. Meal recommendations will be listed however please call if you would like to provide something different. Thanks so much for supporting our teens!

Adults are needed for the Youth Ministry Leadership Team, a Subcommittee of the Total Education Committee:

Members of this team work with the Director of Youth Ministry in organizing a comprehensive ministry with adolescents by assessing needs of youth, setting goals and objectives, and designing programs to address needs. The team handles the planning, implementation and evaluation of the designed programs. This team meets once a month. One member of the team will represent Youth Ministry at the monthly Total Education Committee. Please call Cheryl Poulin at 402-330-9620 to get more information about this opportunity to develop youth ministry at the parish.

Protecting Your Children – A Presentation on Internet Safety

Do the words cyberspace, Facebook, Twitter and Tweeting make you scratch your head in bewilderment? Do you wonder what your children are looking at when they are on the computer? Officer Joel Strominger from the Omaha Police Department will discuss these issues as well as how to protect children from computer predators and cyber-bullying.

Parents, consider attending this informative and relevant event. Time will be given for Q & A.

St. Pius X / St. Leo School Cafeteria, 6905 Blondo Street Wednesday, January 18th at 7:00 p.m.

Parking is available on the east side of the school building. Access the cafeteria through the east school doors.

Officer Strominger is sponsored by The Strengthening Catholic Families team at St. Pius X.

Attention Young Adults in your 20s and 30s

If you are interested in participating in activities for young adults please send Cheryl your contact information. We plan to gather a group of young adults who can help develop Young Adult Ministry in our parish. Call 402-330-9620 or e-mail pouline@stwenc.creighton.edu if you would like to help with this ministry.

Putting Family First: Making Family Decisions: Many of you have already made New Year's resolutions and our mailboxes are becoming cluttered with camping brochures and athletic registration forms. Take some time to evaluate what is really important to your family. What are the cherished and absolute priorities for your family? What do you wish you had more time to do? When you choose activities for yourself or children, how does it impact your time together?

Theology of the Body Training for Teens
Training for Adults
February 11th from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
at Sacred Heart Parish Center in Norfolk, NE.
Teachers, catechists, counselors, parents and people who works with teens are invited to join Damon Owens for a Certification training in the Theology of the Body for Teens curriculum. Registration is $75 and includes lunch. Registration flyers are on the Youth Ministry bulletin board. Please contact Peter Kennedy with any questions at pekennedy@archomaha.org or 402-557-5610.

Attention Young Adults in your 20s and 30s
We know that we have young adults in our parish but our database does not have the correct address if they have moved out of their parent's home. If you are interested in participating in activities for young adults please send Cheryl your contact information. We plan to gather a group of young adults who can help develop Young Adult Ministry in our parish. Call 402-330-9620 or e-mail pouline@stwenc.creighton.edu if you would like to help with this ministry.

Easy and fun family dinner while helping the poor!
The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will hold its Annual Chili Cook-Off SUNDAY, January 29th at Creighton Prep High School, 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. Exciting raffle items: Kindle Fire, iPod Touch, 32" Flat Screen TV, Snow Blower and MORE! Special Guest M.C. Johnny Ray Gomez! Games for the kids! Vote for your favorite chili entry or try the "house" special! Hot dogs and nachos, too. Adults $5, Families $20, Children 5 and under eat free. Add in great desserts (homemade items and Village Inn pies!), and wash it all down with a cold "beverage"! Proceeds will help support the work of The Omaha Society of St. Vincent de Paul Serving the poor in Omaha and surrounding areas. For more information contact Anne Severes, 402-689-3301.

ATTENTION - MEN OF OUR PARISH
The Leadership of 'That Man is You' hopes you had a very blessed and joy-filled Christmas. To those who have been attending 'TMiY', we hope you are putting into practice all that you have learned and we are looking forward to seeing you again very soon. To those who have not been attending 'TMiY', this program would make a great New Year's resolution. We have about 100 men signed up but the gym can hold many more. The spring session of 'TMiY' begins Friday, January 27th, 6:00 - 7:30 a.m. in the gym. We hope to see you there!

AARP Tax-Aide is looking for volunteers to help those with lower incomes to file their federal and state income tax forms. This is a free service. Training is available. If you are interested or have questions please contact Jon Christopherson at 402-333-0567 or jcchristopherson@gmail.com.

January's Charity
Any donations received in the special collection envelope this month will be donated to Essential Pregnancy Services (EPS).
Odyssey Hospice: Would you like to make a difference to someone at the end of their life journey? Volunteers are needed at Odyssey Hospice. There are many different opportunities including Administrative/office help, Bereavement Volunteer, Community Outreach, Direct Patient Involvement and Special Projects. Hours are very flexible! If you are a caring, compassionate person, with 2-4 hours a month to offer, this is perfect for you. Free training is provided. Just by volunteering for only a few hours a month, you can dramatically impact the quality of life for others. To learn more about the rewarding experience of being a hospice volunteer, contact the Volunteer Manager at 402-397-0990 ext. 217. Volunteer Opportunities are available NOW!
Our community thanks you and appreciates you!
